

November 22, 2017

Clay City Hall, Public Works, and Senior Center Close Due to Charter Outage

Clay City Hall remained opened until 1 pm today before making the decision to close early due to the Charter outage. No city business that involved phones or internet access could be completed. A timeline for access to return is not readily available.